The hallways in the nursing student hostel are under continuous closed circuit television system primarily for surveillance and security purpose. A well connected and well maintained PA system is available for use in case of an emergency. Our College is registered under Anti-ragging Act through our affiliating University.

WHAT STUDENTS MUST KNOW

'Ragging' means display of noisy, disorderly conduct, doing any act which causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological harm or raise apprehension or fear or shame or embarrassment to a student in any educational institutional and includes.

- (a) Teasing, abusing of, playing practical jokes on, or causing hurt to such student; or
- (b) Asking the student to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course willingly do.

Prohibition of ragging
Ragging within or outside any educational institution is prohibited.

Penalty for ragging
Whoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or propagates "ragging" within or outside any educational institution, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall be liable to a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees.

Dismissal of student
Whenever any student complaints of ragging to the Head of an educational institution, or to any other person responsible for management of the educational institution is found to be true shall suspend the student who has committed the offence from the educational institution. The decision of the Head of the Educational Institution or the person responsible for the Management of the Educational Institution that any indulged in ragging under sub-section (1) shall be final.

Any student convicted of an offence under section 4 shall also be dismissed from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted in any other educational institution.

Complaints or information against ragging can be oral or written. Confidentiality of the source will be protected.

Each student will have to submit an undertaking against indulging in or abetting ragging.
